

What Happened at the Capitol?

On January 6th, Something very scary happened at the Capitol building.

The Capitol building is in Washington, D.C.

Sadly, people died and the Capitol building was damaged.

A group of people marched in Washington, D.C. The group was angry and upset.

The group marched together to the Capitol building. They broke into the Capitol building.

They damaged things in the building, took things out of the building and scared people working inside the building.
Some people died in the Capitol building that day.

Many people were sad and scared. Important people work in that building and important things are kept and made there.

Many people were working in the Capitol when it was attacked. They had to hide. Those people might have felt sad, scared and angry.

On the news, they are talking a lot about the attack on the Capitol.
This might scare and upset me. When I am scared or upset I can:

1.

2.

3.

These usually help me feel better.

The attack at the Capitol is new. It just happened in Washington, D.C.
Over time, I'll hear less about it on the news.
I should feel better as time goes by.

I am safe where I am. I am safe because...

1.

2.

3.

If I want to talk about the attack on the Capitol I can talk to

The attack on the Capitol is sad, scary and frustrating, but I am safe.
